

Hello gamers! Well, I can see the disappointed faces of y'all. Expecting a full-fleshed game but found a usual "note". Hey, how can you make an assumption? We are not one of those people who cheat you gamers by saying "open-source games". The problem was that GitHub doesn't allow us to upload a file of more than 25 MB. And, we all know how large files are games. So fellas, we have uploaded Minecraft on Google Drive. Yessir, we've NOT cheated you! Take this link to the drive folder containing YOUR AWESOME GAME! Happy Gaming!
